

Vincent Gale

Born and raised in Glasgow Scotland, Vincent Gale is one of the west coasts busiest actors. With over 100 film and television appearances and dozens of stage credits across the country.

His long standing working relationship with director Bruce Sweeney, has produced "Dirty", "American Venus", "Excited", and "last Wedding" the 2001 opening gala of TIFF and the multiple genie award winning film. Other notable film performances include, Anne Wheelers Canadian classic "Bye Bye Blues", Guy Bennets uncompromising "Punch", "The Final Cut", opposite Robin Williams, "Firewall", with Harrison Ford, and Alan Rudolph's "Trixie".

On tv Vincent has had recurring roles on "Battlestar Galactic", "Queer as Folk", "Stargate Universe", "Davincis Inquest" & "Bates Motel"

The Canadian TV movies, "Major Crime", "Dragon Boys", "Everest" and "The Cult".

Vincent has worked on stages across Canada, The Tarragon , MTC , Persephone, The Citadel, Theatre Calgary, The Arts Club, & Vancouver Playhouse.

He has been the recipient of 4 Jessie Richardson theatre awards, The AMPIA , A Gemini nomination, and The Genie in 2002 for "Last Wedding"

