THE GRAND NABOB

Alien Abduction's villain, The Grand Nabob is bent on wiping the human species off the face of the Earth so he and the rest of his society can finally ditch their musty, old spacecraft and move in. This once great leader of the Koymosian race has grown increasingly desperate and hilariously frustrated from centuries of hopelessly floating through the vast emptiness of space, searching for a new home. He will stop at nothing to secure planet Earth as his own, including throwing his own people and their millennia old traditions under the space bus. His comedy stems from his frustration with everyone who stands in his way, from the human Dave Duberinski and his idiot Alien counterpart to his very own superiors, The Koymosian Elders. He is condescending, sarcastic, deceitful, arrogant and one of the funniest characters in the film.

This role is crafted for a comedic male actor, approximately 6' to 6'4" tall, between 40 - 50 years of age with strong comedic and improvisational skills. Upon budget approval, this role will be a pay or play offer for approximately one week of shooting. Blue skin an asset.
