"Left for Dead: The Legend of Wild Bill" is the story of Bill Harris, former camera man of hit outdoor survival show 'Left for Dead'. Though Bill has watched Bob for years, he has never had to endure the elements without Bob's leadership and guidance. As he documents his attempt at a solo escape from the Selkirk Mountain wilderness, Bill's 7 day journey will put his survival skills to the test as he fights to maintain optimism in the face of constant adversity, struggling to ensure that he won't be left for dead.
